Financial Management and Resource Mobilization

SMBT Ayurved is committed to impart quality education and health services in the field of Ayurveda.

We aim at imparting and improving sound knowledge developing proficiency in skill and research and nurturing positive attitude in our students to achieve at most level of satisfaction.

We are committed to provide comprehensive, ethical and quality health care services to satisfy our patients.

The account section deals with the finance related transactions. At the end of each financial year income and expenditure related documents generated. The predominance source of income in SMBT Ayurved is through the fees paid by the enrolled students. Also SMBT Ayurved College and Hospital receives scholarship from Government Authorities for specified students.

SMBT Ayurved has to spend the funds mainly on the salary of the Teaching and non-teaching staff and the periodic infrastructure maintenance and services.

All the income and expenditure transactions are carried out through a Nationalized Bank Account in a nationalized bank. The chartered accountant is accountable for the scrutinizing all related documents. The transactions are closely monitored by the Head of the Institute. At Management level Managing Trustee conduct monthly financial review.
